

Michiko Hayashi, is the Director of the Emoto Peace Project, representing the late Dr. Masaru Emoto who passed away

October, 2014. She has been working with the Emoto Peace Project for the past 10 years. Michiko speaks fluent English and Spanish and is an accomplished author and presenter. She has published over 10 books on “How to Study English to Pass the Test Successfully” and she translated books from English to Japanese. Michiko graduated from Lewis and Clark College in Portland, Oregon with a foreign language major in Spanish, French and Italian. She is no stranger to the Pacific Northwest! She worked at a language school in Tokyo for 8 years where she supervised the operation of four schools.